

Who is a Missionary? (Description)

A missionary is a person who, in response to God's call and gifting, will cross cultural, geographic, or other barriers to proclaim the Gospel and live out a Christian witness in obedience to the Great Commission. Final determination will be made by the Administrative Team based on the information found in the submitted Application for Missionary/Missionary Organization affiliation.

Missionary Membership:

Anyone wishing to apply for Missionary status with The Fellowship must obtain an Application for Missionary Affiliation from the Fellowship Office, from any member of the WMD Administrative Team, or the application can be found on The Fellowship's website, TheFellowshipToday.com. After answering all questions properly, the application must be sent to the World Missions Director for consideration by the Administrative Team. Upon approval and final processing, you will be contacted concerning your Missionary Membership status.

Note: This Application for Missionary Affiliation does not take the place of your membership application to be a member of The Fellowship. Personal membership with The Fellowship is a requirement to receive Missionary Status. It is our recommendation that your ministry also be a member of The Fellowship.

Guidelines for Missionaries:

- Keep in contact with the WMD concerning your ministry: i.e. - Your change of mailing address; change of phone number; change of email address; change of ministry name; change of missionary status in a given country.
- Encouraged to attend regional and annual mission's conferences.
- You must have a personal Pastor and belong to a home church. We believe that it is very important for you to have a pastoral covering as well as a church covering.
- It is important that you keep in contact with your supporters on a regular basis.

Annual Leadership Conference

We encourage our missionaries to attend the Annual Leadership Conference of The Fellowship. A designated mission's service will be scheduled to allow all missionaries opportunity to meet, FGF leaders, other missionaries and pastors of Fellowship churches. A free ministry table space will be allotted to all fellowship missionaries who register at the Annual Leadership Conference.
